Friday 11th February 2022

Dear Mums, Dads and Carers,

It is almost half term. We break up Thursday 17th February (Friday 18th is an inset day) so next week is only a four-day week.

We have had Vocabulary Day in school today which has been wonderful. Thank you to our wonderful families for making such an effort. It feels wonderful that things can return to 'normal'. We are having a huge push on vocabulary in school. Having a wide vocabulary is essential to comprehension in reading and making stylistic choices in writing. Please keep talking to children about the words they read when reading with children at home.

We will be celebrating World Book Day on Thursday 3rd March. Children can dress up as their favourite book character on this day and we will have lots of fun activities planned in school. Last year, we had great fun virtually, but we can't wait to hold World Book Day in person once again.

Please also note that there is a special menu for Monday (see below).

Dates for the diary:

Here are a few dates for the diary and a few of the events we have planned for the Spring Term.

Wednesday 16th February -Year 4 virtual author session with Dermot O'Leary

Thursday 3rd March - World Book Dress Up Day

Friday 4th March - Geography Day (Africa)

Friday 4th March - Year 3 virtual author session with Danny Wallace

Tuesday 29th March -Year 6 virtual author session with MG. Leonard

Apologies for our phones line problems this week. Talk Straight have contacted us to say their supplier is continuing to work on restoring service. They anticipate service restoration within the next few days, hopefully they will be back up and running for Monday.

As always, if there are any concerns or questions, please just ask.

Yours sincerely
L. Spencer
Exec. Headteacher
