Friday 22nd May 2023

Dear Mums, Dads, and Carers,

The weeks seem to be flying by as we quickly approach the end of half term. I would like to start this week's newsletter with a massive well done to the children in school who were recipients of an Alliance Award this week. The celebration in the town hall was delightful. We have also seen a number of our school community being confirmed by Bishop Tony in a lovely celebration at our church on Tuesday night. This included three of our children and a number of our parents, who have confirmed the promises that were made when they were baptised as part of their important lifetime journey of a faith as a follower of Jesus Christ.

In school this week, as part of the governments statutory assessments, Year 2 have been completing their special 'quizzes' and, just like with the Year 6 children last week, I can say I am truly blessed to be headteacher of a school with such wonderful, hardworking and determined children. They have done a fantastic job and should be incredibly proud of themselves.

Finally this week, the school council have announced that they intend to run a 'Bun Week' the first week back after the half term holiday, and would like to ask for donations of buns/cakes to be made the first Monday back. As always, we appreciate your continued support with events like this and are grateful for your donations to help raise much needed school funds. A letter, including more details about this event, from the school council members, will be sent out next week.
